Twas the Night Before Christmas

And all through the AHMA sites,
Not a resident was stirring on this cool winter night.
All in their bed, all cuddly and warm,
They dreamed of Charlotte and Doris cooking up sweets in a storm.
When all of a sudden, there arose such a clatter,
Here come Kenneth and Earl bringing a ladder.
And then Terry and Dean appear, as if out of the blue,
They are lighting the offices for all to “ah and ooh”.
And quickly behind are Becky, Jane, Brenda and Alice
With loads of hot cider and cake for the cold morning dew.
And Regina, Demita and Sandy are there to make sure that all is just right,
And that this will be a very special night.
And here comes Mike, loaded with lots of cheer,
Riding in a sleigh and singing loudly for all to hear.
Happy Holiday to All and
To All a Happy New Year!
